DEDICATION

To 𐤀𐤃𐤃𐤃

To the Name that was not invented in a later age.

To the One who spoke, and the heavens were made.

To the One who told Moses, I AM THAT I AM.

To the One whose Name is written on stone, on silver, on a people, and on the human soul.

This book is not offered as a gift He needs.

It is offered as a record a seeker can check.

You are my witnesses, says 𐤀𐤃𐤃𐤃, “With my servant whom I have chosen;
that you may know and believe me, and understand that I am he. Before me there was no God formed, neither will there be after me.”

— Isaiah 43:10

DEDICATION

To Yeshua

(Jesus)

To the One who said, “I am the way, the truth, and the life.”

This book is not His trial. That case has its own room.
These pages name Him because the God of Israel is not a silence, and the promise was not a rumor.

You shall name him Yeshua, for it is he who shall save his people from their sins.

— Matthew 1:21

I and the Father are one.

— John 10:30

If these chapters do their work, they will not replace Him.
They will leave the reader at His feet, still honest, still free to examine.

DEDICATION

To the Ruach Ha'Kodesh

(the Holy Spirit)

To the Spirit of truth, who does not flatter, and who does not coerce.

This book can stack a case. It cannot open a heart.

That work is Yours.

However, when he, the Spirit of truth, has come, he will guide you into all truth...

— John 16:13

But the hour comes, and now is, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father seeks such to be his worshipers. God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth.

— John 4:23–24

If anything in these pages is only clever, burn it.

If anything is true, bear witness.

DEDICATION

To the Nation of Israel

To the land that kept a name when empires spent theirs.

To Zion, not as a slogan, and not as a pawn.

To the public fact of a people returned, a language raised, a city still called Jerusalem.

For אֶזְרָא has chosen Zion. He has desired it for his habitation.

— Psalm 132:13

For I will take you from among the nations and gather you out of all the countries, and will bring you into your own land.

— Ezekiel 36:24

This case does not use you.

It calls the world to look at what can be seen, and to stop calling it an accident.

DEDICATION

To the Jewish People

To the witnesses who were not replaced.

To the people who carried the Name, the Torah, the prophets, and the cost.
To those who survived 586, and 70, and 135, and every later attempt to close the file.

For you are a holy people to אֱלֹהֵי your God. אֱלֹהֵי your God has chosen you to be a people for his own possession, above all peoples who are on the face of the earth.

— Deuteronomy 7:6

אֱלֹהֵי, who gives the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night... says: "If these ordinances depart from before me," says אֱלֹהֵי, "then the offspring of Israel also will cease from being a nation before me forever."

— Jeremiah 31:35–36

You are not a metaphor.

You are the exhibit the nations were told they could not erase.

DEDICATION

To our Companions

(of Israel and the Jews)

To those who stand with, and not instead of.

To the companion who will not steal the promise in order to love the Promiser.

To every house that has learned to say, Your people will be my people, and your God my God, without asking Israel to vanish first.

Ruth said, “Don’t urge me to leave you, and to return from following you, for where you go, I will go; and where you stay, I will stay. Your people will be my people, and your God my God.”

— Ruth 1:16

I will bless those who bless you, and I will curse him who treats you with contempt. All the families of the earth will be blessed through you.

— Genesis 12:3

If you have been grafted in, remain humble.

The root holds you. You do not hold the root.

...remember that it is not you who support the root, but the root supports you.

— Romans 11:18

DEDICATION

To the Honest Reader

To the one who will not be flattered, and will not be rushed.

To the skeptic who still loves the truth more than the win.

To the believer who is willing to let the evidence take the stand.

To the jury this book actually needs.

Test all things, and hold firmly that which is good.

— 1 Thessalonians 5:21

Now these were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, examining the Scriptures daily to see whether these things were so.

— Acts 17:11

...At the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, shall a matter be established.

— Deuteronomy 19:15

Cross-examine these pages.

If a claim is inferred, make us say so.

If a proof is still unconfirmed, leave it in the last chamber until it can take the stand.

You are not the enemy of this book.

You are the reason it was written as a case file.
